

Top 5 Reasons to Have Jean Speak at Your Next Event

Jean Wright

Her Unique Approach

Jean focuses on the emotional side of sales, asking women to reflect on their true feelings about selling. She helps them identify and overcome limiting beliefs, empowering them to embrace sales as an authentic, confident skill rather than a daunting task.

Tailored Presentations to Women Entrepreneurs

Jean customizes her approach to address women's specific fears of being seen as "salesy." She offers practical strategies for communicating value authentically, helping women to confidently build their sales skills while also building their businesses.

Proven Sales Success

With over four decades of real-world experience, Jean shares proven strategies that consistently lead to sales success. Her approach is grounded in practical experience, providing women with actionable techniques to sell confidently while staying true to their values and purpose.

Engaging Speaker Style

Jean is known for her warm, authentic speaking style, which fosters connection and trust. She combines humor, empathy, and encouragement to make complex sales concepts relatable, creating a comfortable space for women to engage and learn.

Creative Storytelling

Through personal anecdotes and stories from her book Selling Your Confidence, Jean uses storytelling to connect with her audience. She shares her own career experiences, showing women they are not alone in their struggles and offering inspiration to push through challenges in sales.

For more information and to book Jean go to
<https://sellingyourconfidence.com/speaking>

